After losing everything, 20-year-old Margot decides to play the Birthday Girl at a party that turns into a nightmare.

SYNOPSIS

HIDDEN INSIDE A BIRTHDAY CAKE

After the brutal murder of her parents, Margot—a once-promising, high-society student—falls into poverty and isolation. Desperate to survive, she takes a job as a “Birthday Girl,” hired to burst out of a giant cake in a skimpy outfit and sing at parties. But her first gig turns into a nightmare: hidden inside the cake, she realizes the party is being thrown by her former friends—the very ones who turned their backs on her. Paralyzed by shame, she stays hidden... until her phone lights up with horrifying videos: the guests are being murdered one by one. Trapped and terrified, Margot must step out of the cake—and out of her past—to face her fears, save those who betrayed her, and fight to stay alive... even if it means becoming a killer herself.

DIRECTOR

SÉBASTIEN AUGER

After several years spent working in the famous video club “Jm Vidéo”, Sébastien starts making films and directs Des Rats (The Rats), an experimental and ironic short horror film. He went on to work as a director, assistant director and producer, whether for music videos, short films, series, commercials or live recordings. Over the years, Sébastien has directed music videos for Arnaud Rebotini, Etienne Jaumet, Benjamin Biolay, Tahiti 80 and Lorenzo.

Sébastien directed the short films Friendship Without Love and Vinaigre in 2017, both of which were selected for several international festivals. Friendship Without Love was awarded best international comedy at the Hollywood Comedy Short Festival. In 2020, his short film Plot (Cone), a musical developed during the Sofilm genre writing residency, was produced by Canal+ as part of its collection and selected for the Clermont-Ferrand Short Film Festival. His latest work is the horror short film Lixivious, produced by the Spanish-based production company Bad Dogs Productions.
